Peeler Spotlight

Meet the Peeler
Family

"Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor."

Romans 12:10

Covenant Presbyterian Church is excited to welcome Reverend Adam Peeler as Associate Pastor. Pastor Adam and his family started worshipping with us in January and his Installation Service will be March 3rd. Please join us in welcoming the Peeler Family to CPC and plan to fellowship with the Peelers and church family after the service at our Ministry Meal.

Pastor Adam grew up as part of a covenant family and has grown in his love for the Lord and His church. He was raised in Fayette County and met his wife, Jessica, in the youth ministry. They have enjoyed being married since 2002 and have nine children with one on the way.

Pastor Adam received his Bachelor's in Technology Management from Clayton College and State University. His previous work experience includes airline, automotive, manufacturing, and serving on staff at a local private school for children with learning differences.

Pastor Adam felt the Lord calling him into full-time ministry and graduated from Metro Atlanta Seminary in May 2016 with a Masters of Divinity. After serving as a Pastoral Intern he was called to become the Pastor of Children's Ministry in Peachtree City, where he served for 7 years. Adam is excited and humbled by the opportunity to use his gifts and experience to serve the church. His hobbies include fixing things around the house, building projects, playing recreational sports, and board games.
